Sir:

James McCormick (my brother) one of the sons of Capt. George McCormick, dec^d who was an officer in the Revolutionary war has gone on to your City for the purpose of receiving what may be due to said George McCormick's heirs from the United States; he may probably have a power of attorney from two or three of the heirs, but I take the liberty of protesting against the Department paying over to him any thing which may be due, first for the reason that my father George McCormick made a will the carrying out of which was partially effected by me as a kind of Administrator and secondly there are two or three other heirs who have not signed a power of attorney for him to act.

The will referred to is recorded in the County of Mercer State of Kentucky and it is my intention to settle up the said Estate according to the wishes expressed.

I therefore ask of you to reject the application of said James McCormick & others until I can lay before you evidence sufficient to prove that my interest will be very much affected if he James McCormick has power conferred on him.

Respectfully Your Obedt. Servt.
Abraham C. McCormick.
