Daniel Covert Just Peace

State of New York

City and County of New York P: In this ninth day of February One thousand eight hundred and thirty nine personally appeared before us the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, Mary P.

Canfield, of said City who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress, passed the seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight entitled, "an act granting half pay, and pensions to certain widows" - that she is the widow of Phils Canfield, late of New Milford Dutchfield County, Connecticut deceased - that as this deponent always understood from the said Phils Canfield, that during the war of the Revolution the said Phils Canfield, was a Private Soldier, holding no rank, but in addition to his usual duties he was sent upon expeditions and aided in obtaining provisions, that deponent does not know the time when he entered the service, nor the time when he left it. That he was under one engagement only, and it was in this one that he received the wound which led to his leaving the service, that in a skirmish near Worsenect, he was wounded in the knee, by a musket ball, and taken prisoner by the British, who took him to the house of Doctor Bailey, when Doctor Bailey's son cut out the Ball - That the rest of the persons taken prisoners at the same time were carried into the City of New York. That Doctor Bailey being well acquainted with said Philo Canfield's Father, procured him to be paroled, and after staying at the Doctor's house for three or four weeks he returned home. That the said Philo Can-field was under his Father Colonel Samuel Canfield, and deponent has heard him mention Lieutenant Smith as having been with him; but deponent does not know the names of any other persons he was under, or the Regiment, Company or Corps he was in. That when he entered the Service he resided at New Milford, Litchfield County Connecticut, and he entered the Service as a volunteer not having been drafted and not as a substitute.

That the only battle she knows him to have been engaged in, was the Skirmish in which he was wounded. That he served on the line towards the City of New York, through West Chester, East Chester, Honesneck, Greenwich, Rye, and White Plains. That for his wound in his knee he received a pension which at first was twenty five Dollars a year, and was afterwards raised and at his death was seventy Dollars a year.
She ~~was~~ further declares that she was married to the said Philo Canfield on the night before the New Years of the year One thousand seven hundred and eighty three - that in those times some people commenced the day at the sunset of the preceding day, and by that means her marriage was entered in the town Records, as having taken place on the first day of January in the said year, and that her husband died on the tenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven - That depo-nent is certain this was the day as it was her birth day - that she was not married to him prior to his leaving the service, but the marriage took place previous to the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety four - namely at the time above stated, and depo-nent has no documentary evidence of her claim except what is herewith furnished -
